Harold Monro, editor of the London Chapbook.

"For a verse-writer to be printed in POETRY is about the most honorable of recognitions."

"This monthly publication is an exhibition of literary faith and bravery that belongs to the heroic age."
The Daily Journal, East St. Louis.

"The varied interest and beauty presented are typical of POETRY'S quality. Thanks to a rare coincidence of poise and generous imagination, of sense and sensitiveness, it ranks as easily the best vehicle of poetry in the English language."

For the playwrights of tomorrow, a professional course in under the personal supervision of Theodore Ballou Hinckley, Editor of THE DRAMA (formerly of the University of Chicago) assisted by famous playwrights, critics, actors and producers.

Have you plots in mind? Do you often wish to dramatize your ideas, but are you handicapped by not knowing how? This is your opportunity to fulfill your ambition. For the first time, a personalized course in play-writing is offered by correspondence.

Throughout, the aim is toward actual production—not mere amateurish effort. The course brings all that is best from many sources. In study courses, books, examinations, practice plays, analyzations, criticisms, etc., you are taken, step by step, from the simplest rudiments up to actual completion of plays and then on to the consideration of producers.

Good Plays Earn Big Royalties

The building of a successful play lies in the intelligent direction of study—in the guidance of an authoritative. Mr. Hinckley has devoted his life to the study of the drama. He has guided many successful playwrights. He knows what to stress, what to avoid. He will train you to sense the changing demands of the public. Manuscripts with the endorsement of THE DRAMA receive the attention of producers.
